

I resent telemarketers calling my home; time at home is limited and it is unfair that telemarketers think it is their right to intrude. I have already signed up for "Do not Call" and I still receive calls. In fact, I would like to see stiffer penalties for violations. Thank you.